
Please Join Us For MURDER
AT THE DEADWOOD
CANTINA
DEPUTY SHERIFF
Night of Mystery

MURDER AT THE DEADWOOD CANTINA

For weeks, people have been pouring into the small western town of Deadwood for the biggest poker tournament this side of the Mississippi. From outlaws to marshals to cantina girls, the vast array of visitors and residents of Deadwood have made this small western frontier town THE place to be.

As the festivities of the poker tournament conclude, a celebration party is planned at the Deadwood Cantina to award the prize money for the tournament and to celebrate what is hoped to be a very financially successful venture for the cantina.

With a smattering of bandits, bank owners, cantina girls, card players, east coast debutantes, and a few of the locals, this is guaranteed to make for a very interesting evening indeed.

YOU WOULD BE A FOOL TO MISS THIS CELEBRATION!

© Night of Mystery,
www.nightofmystery.com

Night of Mystery

NO VARMITS
NO FIGHTIN
NO BANDITS

AND OTHER RULES AT THE DEADWOOD CANTINA

READ YOUR CHARACTER SHEET AND THE GAZETTE. Included in this packet will be valuable information!!! Be sure to review your own character description and the newspiece/s included for they both include background information that may come in useful at the party.

DO NOT REVEAL EVERYTHING ABOUT YOUR CHARACTER. Before the party, if you are discussing your character with others, use your discretion as to not give too much away–you may find out at the party that you are the killer indeed!

DRESS THE PART. The more into character you are the easier it will be for you to truly enjoy all the aspects of the night. Not only does a great costume add to the excitement and enjoyment, but it increases your chance to be voted best dressed. See ACluelessMurder.com for more costuming ideas and resources. See MurderatTheDeadwoodCantina.com for more costuming ideas.

USE YOUR MONEY CREATIVELY. At the start of the party, you will receive money to use any way you choose. Bribery and blackmail are two of the most common uses we found - and are highly encouraged! The wealthiest player at the end of the night will also receive an award, so get creative!

GET SOCIAL!!! We LOVE to see and promote all of your party pictures and fun! Go ahead and post your creative costumes, crazy antics, and super-fun party-goers - BUT ABSOLUTELY NO SPOILERS ON SOCIAL!!! This includes, but is not limited to, pictures or mentions of the victim, murderer, and/or pertinent clues in the game. As much fun as it is to write a caption like, "my partner killed me last night!" or share a video of your guest "dying"- posting these details not only keeps us from promoting you, but also also ruins the mystery for others. Since spoiler posts create a calculated loss of business, you can be liable to pay the calculated loss of sales upon discovery of the violation. So keep it fun, crazy, and show us your best spoiler-free content!!! and don't forget to tag us after!

CLICK HERE

#NIGHTOFMYSTERY
#MURDERATTHEDEADWOODCANTINA
@NIGHTOFMYSTERY

© Night of Mystery Inc. - www.nightofmystery.com

DEADWOOD GAZETTE

October 20, 1874

Celebration Party THE Place To Be

With the 1st Annual Poker Tournament in town here, there has been a sweltering of visitors and residents milling around town this week. As the tournament dwindles down, anticipation for the celebration party only grows. The party is planned to take place tonight at the Deadwood Cantina, Friday, October 20, 1874. The party is planned to reward the prize money to the winner and to celebrate the success of the tournament. Many of the visitors as well as the locals will be in attendance. Among those that are expected are:

Harry High-Stakes—Cantina Owner. As the organizer of this grand event, Harry has a lot at stake if it is not successful!

Henrietta High-Stakes—Business partner to Harry High-Stakes. Spending less and less time at the cantina lately, could Henrietta be into something or someone else?

Gambling Jack—Card player. The best hand in poker either side of the Mississippi, Jack has not lost a major tournament in the last five years. Until now.

Anna Belle—Backer and friend of Gambling Jack. Known as Jack's good luck charm, some say Anna Belle is the reason Gambling Jack never loses.

Mitch Maverick—Traveling Businessman. As the winner of the tournament, many question how a businessman could have such great card skills. Could Mitch be the next poker phenomenon?

Holly Hickok—Card player. A real southern belle with a flare for poker, many wonder what a girl like Holly is doing in the Wild West?

Clay Coldwell—Card player. A once known poker-great, Clay may no longer be lucky in cards, but he may be proving to be lucky in friendship.

Montgomery Money—Land Investor. Arriving just this last night, word is Montgomery has his eye on purchasing the cantina and is using this traveling opportunity to seize it.

Elizabeth Money—Sister to Montgomery Money. Although Elizabeth has been here scouting land prospects for her brother all week, she is still not used to the rough and rugged ways of the West.

Minnie Money—Debutante. As the sheltered daughter of Montgomery Money and niece of Elizabeth Money, Minnie's first trip out west has been an adventure that has taught her a lot about the wild ways of the West and the people it breeds.

Banker Bob—Bank Owner. After the Bank of Deadwood was robbed earlier this week, Bob suspects the culprit is someone in need of ante money for the poker tournament. Will Bob take justice into his own hands to punish the bandit?

Banker Bonnie—Business partner to Banker Bob. Desperate for Bob's attention, Bonnie will do anything to get it. Anything.

Jesse Wales—Outlaw. Is Jesse here to meet up with old acquaintances or is this purely a business trip?

Poker Alice—Poker Dealer. Alice makes her living dealing cards at the cantina, but could she be hiding more than her loyalty to her favorite bartender?

Sheriff Sam—Deadwood Sheriff. Although Sam is considered the law enforcement of this town, it has been said the only way to get anything 'enforced' is by padding Sam's wallet.

Marshal Dalton—Federal Marshal. The Marshal was assigned to Deadwood to insure that there is no unlawful activity at the poker tournament. With outlaw rule becoming the way of the West these days, it is time the federal government put some order into place.

Sally Starr—Cantina Girl. Because of Sally's strong allegiance to both Harry and Henrietta High-Stakes, Sally will see to it that the cantina thrives at all costs—but what price is too high?

Taffy Garrette—Cantina Girl. Taffy is the eyes and ears of the cantina, someone who might know a little too much about what is about to go down.

Barb Cassidy—Outlaw. Barb has been in town all week and no one knows quite why.

Billy-The-Bartender—Cantina Bartender and Bookkeeper. Billy knows the cantina life from every side of the coin and has his own suspicions about who is holding the cantina back from succeeding.

REWARD

$5,000

For information about the bandit who robbed the Deadwood Bank earlier this week. Information MUST lead to apprehension or death of the bandit. Please see Banker Bob.

Poker Tourn Draws Far, But Not Wide

The draw for this tournament has been a huge success, with card players coming from all parts of the Union. Poker greats such as Holly Hickok and Gambling Jack have made their way up from the South and we have even seen some faces from the East make their way to these parts to join in on the fun. While the card playing talent has reached record highs for these parts, the actual number of card players is not as abundant as anticipated. Some believe that the caliber of card playing talent is so great that most amateur card players chose not to compete. Others speculate that with a $2,500 ante, the stakes were just too high for the average card player. Of course, the $100,000 purse is the highest known pay-out at this time.

Visit the

DEADWOOD CANTINA

WHERE THE DANCE FLOOR IS ALWAYS OPEN!

© Night of Mystery Inc. - www.nightofmystery.com

Sheriff Sam

Although you are the official "ruler" of Deadwood, it tends to rule you. Because you live in a time and place where the law is tremendously disrespected, there is no harmony in Deadwood. The town's justice system is dictated more by vigilantes and outlaws than by your badge. Since your past efforts to uphold the law have failed, you have decided to receive bribes in order to maintain a stable environment. Your philosophy has become to let bygones be bygones as long as the town remains in a somewhat peaceful state.

Although being the sheriff of Deadwood does not pay very well, it does have its benefits. Besides trying to enforce the laws, you do earn a hefty sum by taking bribes. Among the people who have gotten in the habit of bribing you is Harry High-Stakes, the cantina owner. When Harry High-Stakes wanted to establish the Deadwood Cantina, you were aware of his outlaw background and questionable amounts of money. However, Harry offered you a good sum of money to overlook his unlawful past and suspect amounts of money. In return, you granted him a deed to open the cantina. And the bribes did not stop there. Three months ago, you overheard Henrietta threaten to leave Harry if he could not dig himself out of debt. When you threatened to tell Henrietta of Harry's large card playing problem (the cause of his debt), Harry agreed to start paying you weekly for your silence.

Despite the normal quiet nature of Deadwood, this week has been quite the opposite. With the Deadwood Poker Tournament being run at the cantina, the federal government has sent in a U.S. Marshal to oversee the happenings in town. With the Marshal here, you need to be on your best behavior since they will be overseeing you and how you perform your job. In addition to the tournament, there was also a bank robbery in town this week. Banker Bob (the bank owner) has been pressuring you to find the bandit who robbed his bank, but you have yet to discover any leads.

With the Deadwood Poker Tournament Party coming up, you are excited to attend. At the party, you are determined to identify and apprehend the bank robber in order to prove to the Marshal that you are an effective sheriff. If you were to lose your job as sheriff, you would lose your financial security.

Acting and Dressing Your Part: As the sheriff of Deadwood, your authority is being questioned by the Marshal being in town. Don't be afraid to act like you are in charge, even if you are not. Be sure to remember your badge, guns and holster. For more ideas on how to dress and a glossary of wild western words and phrases to use at the party, please see please see the party tips section at www.nightofmystery.com. Simply type in murderatthedeadwoodcantina.com and explore the guest info and costuming sections on the website.

© Night of Mystery Inc. - www.nightofmystery.com