HOST GUIDE

Thank You for Choosing Murder at The Deadwood Cantina

We are confident that you will find this comprehensive packet provides everything that you will want and need to run your very own murder mystery party—one that will have your guests talking about it for weeks, if not longer.

This murder mystery experience is designed to be easy to run and fun to play for all the guests involved. The game is played with all of your guests having active roles in the game and each guest having objectives to complete. These objectives keep the party from being pre-scripted and allow your guests to draw their own conclusions as to the motives and the murderer. This format also allows for great mingling among your guests and ensures that all of your guests feel included. Before the night is through, each guest will have discovered that they have a motive for killing the victim and be inclined to protect their innocence as well as seek out the murderer. Also, to add to the experience and suspense of the night, the murder happens during the party, not before, as is the case in some other murder mystery games. Murder at the Deadwood Cantina is guaranteed to be a hit with all of your guests.

In the following pages is a simple list of things you need to do as host in order to have the party run smoothly. Once the party is going, it is up to the guests to make the most of it—something you will be surprised at how well they do.

How To Host Without Knowing the Murderer

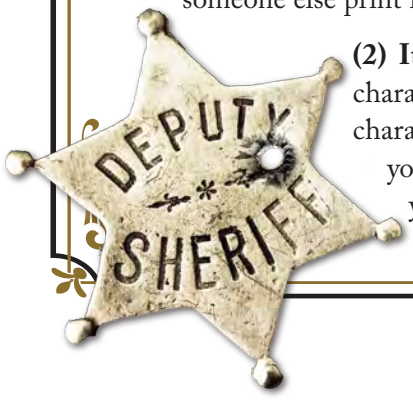

We realize that part of the fun of throwing the party is playing along. If you choose to host WITHOUT knowing who the murderer is, simply follow these directions so that you can avoid any spoilers.

First, you will want to read this host's guide in full. Nowhere in the Host Guide pdf will the murderer and/or victim's identity or gender be listed. Additionally, with these in-depth instructions, it will ensure you that you are setting up the party correctly while being able to fully participate!

Second, even if you avoid places where the murderer is identified, the mystery materials will give you clues, added information, etc. so we suggest you refrain from reading the mystery materials if desiring to play along.

There are only two places in the mystery materials that will tell you who the murderer is:

(1) In the solution. It will be separated into a different file AND flagged with a cover page to tell you not to read it. The name itself is not highlighted, rather usually listed within the text and amongst a lot of other text so there is little chance of "accidentally" seeing it when you are printing it off. If you still do not trust yourself, have someone else print it out and put it in the solution envelope.

(2) It is listed in that guest's secrets in their "B" materials. Since we cannot tell you which character to "not read," since that too would give it away, you will want to avoid reading the character's "B" information but your own. Again, it is not highlighted or bolded, but if you do not trust yourself, you may want to have someone else stuff the envelopes.

HOST GUIDE

ASSIGNING THE CHARACTERS

- As host, you will need to decide upon a character for each of your guests. The easiest way to assign the characters is to read the character descriptions and match each character with the guest you feel suits that particular character the best. They will be listed in this host's guide, along with a sheet that will help you assign the characters best to your guests.
- WHO CAN I ELIMINATE WITHOUT RUINING THE MYSTERY? If you are short 20 guests, the game can be played without the following characters: Marshal Dalton, Taffy Garrette, Anna Belle, Billie-The-Bartender and Banker Bob. If the Marshal has been eliminated, the victim will assume that role after death. Jesse Wales and Marshal Dalton can be played by a male or female guest.
- Because this party is dependent on a minimum number of people showing up, you may want to determine ahead of time which guests are attending before assigning characters.
- An accurate guest count is important. It is recommended that you send out the general invite with an RSVP date of two weeks before the party. After your guests RSVP positive, you can send them their character sheet.
- You can download an invite at: http://www.nightofmystery.com/invitations
- The killer will not know they are the murderer until they open their second envelope at the party.
- The victim will not know they are the victim until they get to the party. The victim will not have a list of objectives for after the murder. Also listed in their first set of objectives is to, "fall down dead when the lights go off."
- The victim after "death": If the victim wishes to play along after the murder, they can do so without an identity. If you have an extra identity (that is, a role that is not being played), they can also assume that identity if they so choose. If Marshal Dalton is not assigned, the victim will assume this role after they have "died."*
- If you have eliminated the investigator for your party, then the victim will play the role of Marshal Dalton for the second half of the party. Following the "death," the victim will get up and the host can then explain that there will be an investigator for the second half (which will be the victim). The victim/investigator will then read the "investigation directions" to the crowd. You will have prepared the investigator's "b envelope," so the guest will know what to do next and how to proceed. Since the investigator's main role is based after the murder, it is ok if the investigator is eliminated from the first half of the party and only plays the second half. Additionally, the victim does not know who killed them or why, so the victim can assume the role of the investigator for the second half.
- As host, who should I be? This is really a personal decision for you. Since it is their party, some hosts choose to be a main role. However, some hosts choose a more secondary role so that they can more fully attend to their hosting duties. See Hosting Timeline further in host guide to get a better indication of all that you will need to do the night of the party.*
- Ideas for assigning couples: Clay Coldwell & Sally Starr or Minnie Money, Mitch Maverick & Holly Hickok or Minnie Money, Henrietta High-Stakes & Harry High-Stakes, Gambling Jack & Anna Belle, Montgomery Money & Elizabeth Money, Billie-The-Bartender & Poker Alice or Barb Cassidy.

How the Larger Versions Work

The 20 characters are to be the suspects in the murder. On top of those 20 characters, there are 14 other general characters. These characters all have objectives to complete and secrets to keep, but they are not imperative to the murder or the investigation. The guests in these roles will keep their birth name. Each of these roles can be assigned multiple times in order to meet the needs of your guest list. With larger parties, these extra roles make the sleuthing more interactive and help to insure that all of the possible motives for the murder are exposed.

Assigning the General Characters

If you find yourself with over 20 guests, here is a short guide on how to "super-size" your party.

- The 20 characters listed on the previous page are to be the suspects in the murder. In addition to those 20 characters, there are 14 other more general characters.
- These general characters all have objectives to complete and secrets to keep, so they remain an active part of the game.
- These characters, however, are not imperative to the murder or the investigation. (They will aid the investigation, but cannot hinder it by not showing up.)
- The guests in these roles will keep their birth name, or you can assign them their own name.
- The general characters' name tags are designed so that you can fill in the names of your guests above their general description.
- Each of these roles can be assigned multiple times in order to meet the needs of your guest list.
- With larger parties, these extra roles make the sleuthing more interactive and help to insure that all of the possible motives for the murder are exposed.
- When assigning the general characters, you should assign them (if possible) in the order that they are listed in this document. Ex.: If you have 25 people coming, the extra characters to assign would be: Cantina Girl A, Gambler A, Cantina Girl B, Gambler B and Traveler A.

Customizing the characters:

- On each of the general characters' character description and objective pages, there is a field in which you can type in your guest's given (or made-up) name for the party. When you type the name into the description page, it will automatically input into their corresponding objective pages.
- On the name tag and labels page, you can input your guest's given (or made-up) name before printing.
- If you are having trouble making the font match in your pdf, you will need to download and install the Playbill and Sexsmith font on your computer.

Below is the list of the 14 general roles in the order that they should be assigned and the gender that they should be assigned to.

1) Cantina Girl A: Female
2) Gambler A: Male
3) Cantina Girl B: Female
4) Gambler B: Male
5) Deadwood A: Male
6) Cantina Girl C: Female
7) Cantina Patron A: Male or Female
8) Cantina Girl D: Female

HOST GUIDE

Hosting Tips

- Have masking tape and/or chalk, if you want your investigator to outline the body after "death."'
- If you have eliminated the investigator role for your party, you may want to have something prepared for them for the second half of the party to help identify that guest as the character they will later be assigned. In this case, the victim will assume the role of Marshal Dalton , so you might consider having a badge, handcuffs, etc. for them. (Optional)

Making the Invitations

Before the party, each guest must receive three things: (1) the invitation, (2) The Deadwood Gazette and (3) their character description.

The Print Option

THE INVITATION

- To make the invitations, first input your party details into the invite page.
- Print out, double-sided the number of invites that you need. Fold each invite in half.
- Invite should fit nicely into an A9 invitation envelope (5 3/4" x 8 3/4").

THE DEADWOOD GAZETTE

- This will provide information on the other guests at the party.

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

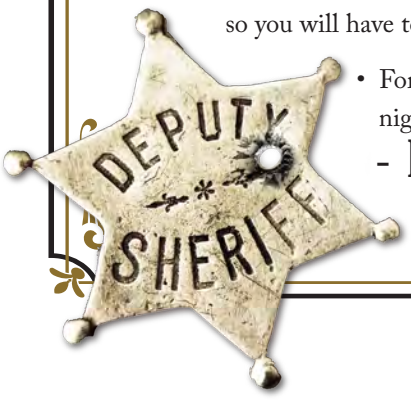

- You need to assign each guest a character to play at the party. (See the previous sections.)

- Invite, Gazette and Character Descriptions are found in the Mystery Materials pdf.

The Download and Email Option

- Following your purchase of the party, you may also access and use the downloadable character descriptions from our website.
- Each description is a pdf file containing the above information for each character.
- This option allows you to email each of your guests their character description without having to print and mail the information.
- Please remember, the pdf file option does not include a place to enter the date, time or address of the party, so you will have to inform or remind your guests of the party location details in another fashion.
- For this, we do have downloadable, emailable invitations that can be found at: http://www.nightofmystery.com/invitations

- Downloadable invites, with character descriptions, will be available in your online account after purchase

HOST GUIDE

PREPARING THE MATERIALS FOR THE PARTY

- It is best to view and print all of your materials from Adobe Reader, a free application. Be sure you do not use a Preview Application to print or view materials.
- For the name tag and label pages (optional), they are best printed on adhesive label paper. Name tag and label pages are compatible with Avery labels 15163, 18163, 5163, 5263, 5523, 5663, 5963, 8163, 8253, 8463, 8663 and 8763.
- Cut out and make name tags for the guests. You can print the name tags onto on adhesive label paper or print on regular paper and include a pin with the name tags so that the guests can secure them to their outfits.
- Photocopy the printout of the money onto green paper. You will need as many copies as there are guests attending. Trim the money and bundle them in packages of $500.
  —To skip this step, you can purchase fake/play money or coins rather inexpensively at a novelty or party store and use the fake/play money or coins instead of the paper money.
  —It is helpful to bundle your money using a paperclip.
- Cut the "A Objectives" sheets in half on the dashed lines. DO NOT cut the "B Objectives" sheets in half.
- Label two envelopes with each character's name. Label one envelope with an (A) and one with a (B) for each character. On the (B) envelope, you can also label for "AFTER the murder."
  OPTIONAL: We have formatted some labels that you can adhere to your envelopes, so that you will not need to label them yourself. Please see the label pages in the Mystery Materials pdf.

In the (A) envelopes place: a name tag, safety pin(s) to adhere the name tag, a bundle of money and the half-sheet of the character's objective sheet that has objectives for the beginning of the party.

In the (B) envelopes place: the full-sheet objective sheet for each character which has objectives for after the murder happens. In addition, place the following:

— Exhibit A in Marshal Dalton's (B) envelope. — Exhibit B in Holly Hickok's (B) envelope. — Exhibit C in Billie-The-Bartender's (B) envelope. If Billie is not in attendance, place Exhibit C in the Marshal's (B) envelope.

— Exhibit D in Sally Starr's (B) envelope,.
— Exhibit E in Jesse Wales' (B) envelop.
— Exhibit F In Sheriff Sam's (B) envelope.
— Exhibit G in Barb Cassidy's (B) envelope.

- If you have eliminated Marshal Dalton's character, you will need to prepare Marshal Dalton's "B" envelope. Also insert Marshal Dalton's character description and name tag into their envelope. (You do not need to add money, as the guest will have money from the first half of the party.) After "death," the victim will assume the role of Marshal Dalton and will need this information.
- In a separate envelope place the Investigation sheet. Label it as "Investigation."
- In a separate envelope place the Evidence Presentation. Label it as "Evidence."
- Place the solution in a sealed envelope and label it "Solution."
- Keep the "introduction," the "investigation envelope," the "evidence envelope," and the "solution envelope" in a convenient location so you can hand them out throughout the night as guests need them.
- Make enough copies of the accusation sheets for the number of guests you have coming. Cut the pages along the dashed lines.
- Make additional copies of the Smoking Gun Award, as there may be multiple people who guess the murderer.

HOST GUIDE

STAGE ONE - THE GUESTS ARRIVE

- Have the guests' name tags, bundle of money and their (A) envelopes available for them.

STAGE TWO - INTRODUCTION

- After all of the guests have arrived, hand Harry High-Stakes the Introduction and have him read it aloud to the guests.
- Have time for guests to mingle and complete their objectives.
  - This may require 30-60 minutes depending on how well your guests know each other.

STAGE THREE - MURDER AND INVESTIGATION

- When guests start to settle down and you are sure the victim has completed all of their objectives, you can let Harry High-Stakes know that he can award the money. The victim is instructed in their starting objectives to "discreetly let the host know when they have completed their objectives."*
- Arrange to have the lights to go out and a loud bang sound (like a cap gun) as Harry is awarding the money.
- When the lights come back on, the victim will have fallen down "dead."
- After the victim has "died," hand Marshal Dalton masking tape or chalk, so that they can outline the position of the body on the floor or ground. If Marshal Dalton is not assigned to anyone, then you can outline the body. The victim will then play the role of Marshal Dalton for the second half of the party. See further instructions in Host Guide.*
- Hand Marshal Dalton the "investigation envelope" and have them read the instructions aloud to the guests.
- Hand the guests their (B) envelopes which will have new information and objectives for the guests to complete now that the murder has occurred.

STAGE FOUR - EVIDENCE PRESENTATION

- When guests have settled down again, and Marshal Dalton has collected all of their evidence, hand Marshal Dalton the evidence envelope and have them present the findings the guests.
- It is best if the evidence is then laid on a table so that everyone may see it.
- Give your guests additional time to review the evidence. You may want to make multiple copies of the evidence so that it can be seen by everyone.
- Hand out the accusation sheets and ask everyone to complete them and hand them back to you during this time.

STAGE FIVE - THE SOLUTION

- After all of the accusation sheets are handed in, use the tally sheet to calculate the winners.
  - Have Marshal Dalton read the solution aloud to the guests.
  - Award the certificates to the winners!
