MURDER AT THE DEADWOOD CANTINA

For weeks, people have been pouring into the small western town of Deadwood for the biggest poker tournament this side of the Mississippi. From outlaws to marshals to cantina girls, the vast array of visitors and residents of Deadwood have made this small western frontier town THE place to be.

As the festivities of the poker tournament conclude, a celebration party is planned at the Deadwood Cantina to award the prize money for the tournament and to celebrate what is hoped to be a very financially successful venture for the cantina.

With a smattering of bandits, bank owners, cantina girls, card players, east coast debutantes, and a few of the locals, this is guaranteed to make for a very interesting evening indeed.

YOU WOULD BE A FOOL TO MISS THIS CELEBRATION!

Night of Mystery

NO VARMITS
NO FIGHTIN
NO BANDITS

AND OTHER RULES AT THE DEADWOOD CANTINA

READ YOUR CHARACTER SHEET AND THE GAZETTE. Included in this packet will be valuable information!!! Be sure to review your own character description and the newspiece/s included for they both include background information that may come in useful at the party.

DO NOT REVEAL EVERYTHING ABOUT YOUR CHARACTER. Before the party, if you are discussing your character with others, use your discretion as to not give too much away–you may find out at the party that you are the killer indeed!

DRESS THE PART. The more into character you are the easier it will be for you to truly enjoy all the aspects of the night. Not only does a great costume add to the excitement and enjoyment, but it increases your chance to be voted best dressed. See AClueless Murder.com for more costuming ideas and resources. See MurderatTheDeadwoodCantina.com for more costuming ideas.

USE YOUR MONEY CREATIVELY. At the start of the party, you will receive money to use any way you choose. Bribery and blackmail are two of the most common uses we found - and are highly encouraged! The wealthiest player at the end of the night will also receive an award, so get creative!

GET SOCIAL!!! We LOVE to see and promote all of your party pictures and fun! Go ahead and post your creative costumes, crazy antics, and super-fun party-goers - BUT ABSOLUTELY NO SPOILERS ON SOCIAL!!! This includes, but is not limited to, pictures or mentions of the victim, murderer, and/or pertinent clues in the game. As much fun as it is to write a caption like, "my partner killed me last night!" or share a video of your guest "dying"- posting these details not only keeps us from promoting you, but also also ruins the mystery for others. Since spoiler posts create a calculated loss of business, you can be liable to pay the calculated loss of sales upon discovery of the violation. So keep it fun, crazy, and show us your best spoiler-free content!!! and don't forget to tag us after!

Celebration Party THE Place To Be

With the 1st Annual Poker Tournament in town here, there has been a sweltering of visitors and residents milling around town this week. As the tournament dwindles down, the anticipation for the celebration party only grows. The party is planned to take place tonight at the Deadwood Cantina, Friday, October 20, 1874. The party is planned to reward the prize money to the winner and to celebrate the success of the tournament. Many of the visitors as well as the locals will be in attendance. Among those that are expected are:

Harry High-Stakes: Owner of the Deadwood Cantina. As the organizer of this grand event, Harry has a lot at stake if it is not successful!

Henrietta High-Stakes Business partner to Harry High-Stakes. Although she has been spending less and less time at the cantina lately, could she be into something or someone else?

Gambling Jack Card player. Jack is known as the best hand in poker either side of the Mississippi and has not lost a major tournament in the last 5 years. Until now.

Anna Belle Backer and friend of Gambling Jack. Some say Anna Belle is the reason Gambling Jack always wins.

Mitch Maverick: Business man from the East. As the winner of the tournament, many question how a businessman could have such great card skills. Is he the next poker phenomenon?

Holly Hickok Card player. Holly is a real southern belle with a flare for poker. What is a girl like this doing in the Wild West?

Clay Coldwell: Local resident of Deadwood and once-known poker great. Although Clay has never met Mitch Maverick, the two of them seem awful close after only knowing each other only a week.

Sheriff Sam: Sheriff of Deadwood. Although Sam is considered the law enforcement of this town, it has been said the only way to get anything 'enforced' is by offering him a bribe.

Montgomery Money: An investor from the East. Montgomery is in Deadwood on a business trip and rumor has it that he has his eye on purchasing the cantina. Montgomery just arrived last night for the party.

Elizabeth Money Sister of Montgomery Money. Elizabeth has been here all week scouting out the land that her brother hopes to develop. Elizabeth is still not used to such rough and rugged ways.

Minnie Money: Debutante. As the sheltered daughter of Montgomery Money and niece of Elizabeth Money, this is her first experience out West. Minnie's trip has taught her a lot about the wild ways of life and the men it breeds.

Banker Bob: Bank of Deadwood owner. After Bob's bank was robbed this week, Bob suspects the culprit is someone in need of ante money for the poker tournament. Will Bob take justice into his own hands to punish the bandit?

Banker Bonnie Business partner to Banker Bob. Bonnie is desperate for Bob's attention and will do anything to get it.

Poker Alice Poker dealer and the ex-partner of Jesse Wales. Alice now works for Harry dealing poker and serving sarsaparilla.

Marshal Dalton: Federal Marshal. Assigned to Deadwood to insure that there is no unlawful activity at the poker tournament. With outlaw rule becoming the way of the west these days, it is time the federal government put some order into place.

Sally Starr: Cantina girl. Sally has a great allegiance to both Harry and Henrietta High-Stakes and wants to see the cantina thrive at all costs.

Taffy Garrett: Cantina girl. Taffy is the eyes and ears of the cantina, someone who might know a little too much about what is about to go down.

Billy-the-Bartender: The cantina bartender and bookkeeper. Billy knows the cantina life from every side of the coin. Literally.

Jesse Wales: An outlaw and old comrade of Harry's. Is Jesse here to meet up with old acquaintances or is this purely a business trip?

Barb Cassidy: Outlaw. Barbara's been in town all week and no one knows quite why.

REWARD

$5,000

For information about the bandit who robbed the Deadwood Bank earlier this week. Information MUST lead to apprehension or death of the bandit. Please see Banker Bob.

Poker Tourn Draws Far, But Not Wide

The draw for this tournament has been a huge success, with card players coming from all parts of the Union. Poker greats such as Holly Hickok and Gambling Jack have made their way up from the South and we have even seen some faces from the East make their way to these parts to join in on the fun. hile the card playing talent has reached record highs for these parts, the actual number of card players is not as abundant as anticipated. Some believe that the caliber of card playing talent is so great that most amateur card players chose not to compete. Others speculate that with a $2,500 ante, the stakes were just too high for the average card player. Of course, the $100,000 purse is the highest known pay-out at this time.

Cantina Patron C

As a resident of Deadwood, you are a frequent visitor and a patron of the cantina. Since the town itself is still in its settlement phase, businesses and residents are just beginning to make Deadwood their home. When The Deadwood Cantina was established a little over a year ago, you welcomed the business with open arms. In the past year, you have seen the popularity of the cantina go from good to great. The Deadwood Cantina has become one of the prime locations to socialize and do business in town. As a resident, you visit the cantina nightly as do many of the other locals, including Clay Coldwell (a local card player). While at the cantina, you witness a great deal including an interesting rivalry between Barb Cassidy (an outlaw), Billy-The-Bartender (the bartender) and Poker Alice (the poker dealer). From an outsider's point of view, it appears that Barb Cassidy cares a great deal for Billy-The-Bartender who cares a great deal for Poker Alice. Since Alice has a very uppity exterior, you are uncertain of her feelings for Billy.

Since the town of Deadwood is still a budding frontier town, at times one might find it boring as you have. With the Deadwood Poker Tournament in town, however, there has been an air of liveliness that is very refreshing with new faces and continuous action in the cantina.

Being a resident of Deadwood, you have noticed a great number of foreign faces in the city including Jesse Wales (an outlaw). Knowing that Jesse and Harry High-Stakes (the cantina owner) are old friends put your mind at ease. However, after the recent bank robbery in town, you are not certain if Jesse is here to visit acquaintances or for business matters. As luck would have it, another old companion of Harry's visiting this week is Gambling Jack (a card player). Being that Harry is known for his high-stakes card playing, it is no surprise to you that Jack and Harry are friends. Ironically, the one person who did seem surprised at the acquaintance of the two men was Anna Belle (Gambling Jack's backer). Following the tournament, you have heard some complaints that Harry favored Gambling Jack in the tournament, but you do not believe those rumors to be true since Jack (like the other card players) had to pay the same ante fee to get into the tournament. To top it off, Gambling Jack did not win the tournament, which would further indicate that Jack was given no special treatment in the tournament.

While you are not looking forward to the poker tournament ending and Deadwood returning to its slower-paced lifestyle, you are excited to attend the Deadwood Poker Tournament Party. With the grand prize of $100,000 being awarded, there is certain to be a lot of action at the cantina!

Acting and Dressing Your Part: As a resident of Deadwood, a small frontier town in the Wild West, you are a rough and rugged cowboy or cowgirl. To the party, you will want to wear your western best, which may consist of cowboy boots, a hat, a bandana, shoestring tie, spurs, fringe, chaps and any other accessory you desire. *For more ideas on how to dress and a glossary of wild western words and phrases to use at the party, please see the party tips at www.nightofmystery.com.
